

A+ COMPUTER TECHNICIAN

Learn the nuts and bolts of PC computer assembly, installation, support, upgrade, maintenance and repair in this 26 week course. Students will gain the skills they need to pass the A+ Certification examination. Successful graduates will have the technical “know how” to apply for entry-level positions such as computer technicians, computer repair or maintenance technicians, bench techs, and computer support specialist.

The A+ Certification is administered by the Computing Technology Industry Association (Comp TIA) which certifies the competency of entry-level computer service technicians in the computer industry.

We provide:

- Instructors with industry experience who prepare you for a job
- Small classes for step-by-step personalized instruction
- Certificate of completion
- Internship/Job Placement Assistance to help you secure a position as a computer professional
- Certificate of Completion
- Industry Certification Exam Preparation

Program objectives include learning:

- PC Hardware Assembly
- Hardware and Software troubleshooting techniques.
- Basic electronic fundamentals.
- Computer systems.
- wireless network security.
- Basic network Installation and configuration
- Network equipment and physical site requirements.
- Advanced computer concepts
- Microsoft operating systems
- And more

Free tuition & Stipends available for qualified Vets—Call for details

Next Class Date: Please Call or email...

Micro-Easy Vocational Institute

BPPE, licensed to operate

3851 San Pablo Dam Road

El Sobrante, CA 94803

510-262-9949

www.micro-easy.com • e-mail: training@micro-easy.com